To open their eyes, to turn them from darkness to light ... that they may receive forgiveness of sins... Acts 26:18

November 2015

* Saturday Bible Study and Discipleship

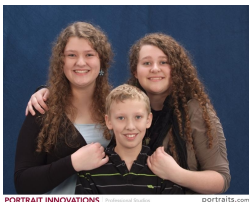

November was the start of our Saturday Bible study in Galatians. We praise God for Katerina (mentioned in our June and Sept. letter) who has attended faithfully. Last week, Nov. 28th, she brought her friends Aleksander and Lillia and niece Polleena (8 years old). Sergei has doubts about the Russian Orthodox and is searching for truth. Please pray with us for his salvation. Lillie is 14 and not sure about the whole Bible study thing. Pray for her. Katerina is learning and reading her Bible and has an appetite to learn. Pray for her as she grows in her new faith.

* In the USA April to June

Corissa graduates in May from High School, and since our support is still lacking, we will be in the USA in April to June. Please be in prayer as we book meetings and that God would bless our time and we can raise new support. Also pray for Corissa as she graduates and transitions to college. She is currently in the Biomedical program in high school and plans to study pediatric nursing in college. Pray for God's guidance on her life.

* Family News

Candice is enjoying college and doing very well. She has been witnessing to an old friend E.J. long distance. Please pray for wisdom for her and E.J.'s salvation. Corissa is also doing great. She is very busy with church, school, and college applications. Pray for God's guidance and provision in her life. Phillip is hanging in there with homeschool. He is adjusting to being here alone. Pray for his adjustment and wisdom for us to teach and nurture him in Christ.

LORD!!!
